

NATIONAL REAL ESTATE ETHICS DAY[®] #NationalEthicsDay

Understanding the Code of Ethics and its requirements makes us better REALTOR[®]. This course will walk REALTORS[®] through the articles of the Code with emphasis on the most misunderstood and/or are most violated. Includes all of the latest changes to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the National Association of REALTORS[®]. Bringing the very best presentation to our buyer and seller clients is our number one goal and following the Code can help you do that. This course provides REALTORS[®] with a reliable reference for guidance in dealing with complex situations in today's day to day practice of real estate.

Upon completion of the Code of Ethics Orientation class, you will be able to:

1. Briefly describe the history of the Code of Ethics as it relates to its origins, its influence on state licensing laws and its establishment of arbitration as the monetary dispute resolution process between REALTORS[®].
2. Identify concepts in the Preamble to the Code of Ethics, including concepts such as the wide distribution of land ownership, highest and best use of the land, principles of competency, fairness and high integrity and the concept of adherence to the Code regardless of an inducement of profit and/or an instruction from clients to the contrary.
3. Identify the Golden Rule as one of the foundations upon which the Code of Ethics is built.
4. List the major categories of Articles in the Code (Duties to Clients and Customers, Duties to the Public and Duties to REALTORS[®]).
5. Describe the structure of the Code and its supporting materials (Articles, Standards of Practice and Case Interpretations).
6. List Articles of the Code which are commonly the subject of complaints.
7. Describe the concepts of these commonly cited Articles of the Code, including Articles 1, 2, 9, 12, and 16.
8. Explains Standard of Practice 10-5 in a way that makes folks understand it's about improvement, not about purge.
9. Given case studies, fact scenarios or similar interactive learning methods, identify possible violations of the Code of Ethics, specifically related to the commonly cited Articles.
10. Describe the professional standards enforcement process of the association, including the distinction between an ethics complaint and an arbitration request, and the differences between the Grievance Committee and the Professional Standards Committee.

Leigh Brown has carved a unique path as an author, public speaker, and real estate professional known and respected in her home community and throughout North Carolina. A proud native of Cabarrus County and a UNC graduate, she is a third-generation family member to pursue a similar calling.

Leigh was honored to have served as President of NC REALTORS® in 2023 and continues to serve #EveryNeighborEveryZipCode through real estate and advocacy for this great profession. Leigh's enthusiasm is infectious, and her commitment to public service is second to none. She is passionate about helping others to learn, grow and achieve their full potential as community and professional leaders.

"This is my gift to my profession, no fee goes directly to me — after we pay for the overhead for the event, we make a giant gift to the REALTORS® Relief Foundation.

National Real Estate Ethics Day® 2018, was a tremendous success — across the country, REALTORS® were promoting the Code of Ethics. In one day, over $40,000 was raised for the REALTORS® Relief Foundation, and over 7000 REALTORS® responded to the call for action. Since then we have raised an additional $100,000+ for the REALTORS® Relief Foundation! It's proof that REALTORS® find a way to come together when we need them. We're going to get the hashtag trending again #NationalEthicsDay and get our REALTOR® members talking about what it means to be bound by the Code of Ethics. Not just talking about it like words on paper."
